Happy Holidays !

Happy Holidays from all of us at McCartney Multimedia, Inc and iFanz.com.

This is a time to reflect, be cheerful and thankful for what we all have received. That just needed to be said. We all love those festive moments during the holidays. Speaking of festive moments...

NetSpot® of the Month

Ceasar's Entertainment selected McCartney to produce a NetSpot promoting the legendary Sir Elton John at their Las Vegas Strip theatre. This NetSpot features a short montage of the legend's classic hits which he performs in the Vegas show "The Red Piano". The flash style mimics the 60's style mod artwork used in print promotions for the show.

From The Road

LA, Phoenix (Suns / Lakers), Palm Springs, Desert Hot Springs.

AK Destinations hosted a getaway at The Sanctuary in Scottsdale, dinner at Michael's in N. Scottsdale and tickets to their new courtside cafe and luxury VIP suite at the America West Arena. A five star faboo time was had by all - our thanks to Gary Pryor and John Coppolino.

On the way back, Ruth and Martin stopped in at their favourite desert restaurant Melvyn's at the Ingleside Inn in Palm Springs and ran into owner, raconteur and P.S. Walk of Fame Star Mel Haber.

Be sure to order the spinach salad with warm bacon and Worcestershire Sauce dressing, and the famous fried Brie and Jalapeño Jelly. Oh, and don't forget to stay the night in Mel's fabulous 30 room Inn next door where Frank proposed to Barbara. That's right - SINATRA! There is a Jazz Jam Session every Sunday night stop by for some legendary folks and toonz.

President Martin Nethercutt hard at work and deep in thought at Two Bunch Palms in Desert Hot Springs - OBVIOUSLY he is contemplating the 2005 budget. Either that, or he is envisioning his role as the Tim Robbins character in The Player II (where the mud scene was shot in the original for you movie trivia buffs).

Thought of The Month

With Tom Brokaw and Dan Rather both announcing their retirement, it caused us to ponder the profession of reporting:

When the media does it, it's called "news coverage." When an individual does it, it's called "stalking."
